April 21 & 22 ↻ Saturday, 10am – 5pm & Sunday, 12pm – 5pm

The purpose of the Children's Art Programs Pop-Up Studio area is to encourage and foster educational fun with creative arts in our youth. All the projects are open-ended and emphasize the process and the importance of creativity within the process of making art.

Ten Pop-Up Studios will be accepted in this area of The Village, each representing a specific medium of the visual art processes/techniques presented in the main festival. As a participant, you will provide children (with their families) a no-charge make-and-take art activity in a specific medium.
