2 Armonk Outdoor Art Show

Armonk, New York
Friends of the North Castle
Public Library, Inc.

This juried show is sponsored by the Friends of the North Castle Public Library, with proceeds benefiting the North Castle Public Library and its Whip-poorwill Hall theater. The show is run by community volunteers. Armonk, part of the Town of North Castle, is 35 miles north of New York City, allowing the show to draw an affluent audience from the New York Metro area and surrounding suburbs, as well as Greenwich and Stamford in neighboring Fairfield County, Connecticut.

The show features 185 juried national and international artists creating in a variety of media, including painting, mixed media, printmaking, drawing, pastels, sculpture, photography, wearable art, and fine crafts. Cash awards are offered in all media categories. Other artist amenities include easy access and set-up assistance, booth sitters, large art transport, free on-site parking, security, and artist contact information in the show directory and on its website.

3 Chain of Parks Art Festival

Tallahassee, Florida
LeMoyne Arts

The annual Chain of Parks Art Festival is a two-day juried fine art festival held the third weekend each April in a group of city parks known as the Chain of Parks in downtown Tallahassee, Florida's capital city. The festival awards over $10,000 in cash prizes, with approximately 170 artists competing and 40,000+ visitors and patrons coming out to enjoy this springtime weekend event under the stately live oaks. All proceeds from this marquee juried festival benefit LeMoyne Arts, a non-profit community-based art center.

Artist amenities include a reserved hospitality area with all-day complimentary refreshments and portable toilets, a complimentary event T-shirt, volunteer booth sitters, 24-hour on-site security by uniformed police officers, Festival website includes artist gallery with a live link to the artists, high-quality program distributed on site with information on each artist, pre-event marketing tools for artists, complimentary reserved parking and RV parking, and Friday set-up with artist welcome reception. The top award winners are automatically juried into next year's show, and the program cover artist is selected from participating festival artists. The 2019 festival saw combined artist sales of more than $500,000. The festival spends more than $75,000 on marketing and PR throughout northern Florida and southern Georgia.

4 La Quinta Arts Festival

La Quinta, California
La Quinta Arts Foundation

Formerly held on the grounds of the La Quinta Civic Center Campus, this event was the top-rated fine art and design show in last year's Sunshine Artist 200 Best list. Following the 2019 festival in March, organizers announced that the event had broken sales records, and exhibitors who sent in their FastAudit reviews gave the shows high scores. The La Quinta Arts Foundation announced in June that it will not hold the event in 2020 (see the news story in our August 2019 issue for more details).
